League

St Mary's Rasharkin 0-1 Carey 6-22

Carey secured their promotion to Division 2 with an emphatic victory over the Antrim Junior Championship winners, St. Mary's, at the end of November. Early goals from Martin Hunter and Ciarán Mc Caughan, and a litany of points had us 2-8 to no score, ahead after 15 minutes. Further goals from Martin Mc Auley, Martin Hunter and Tommy Devlin left us ahead at half-time on a scoreline of 5-12 to 0-1. After the break, despite using 5 substitutes, we still continued to dominate play. A further goal from Ciarán Mc Caughan and with most of the forwards getting in on the act, we ran out easy winners on the day.

Buíochas / Thanks

Cóisir na Scothaoise/Senior Citizen's Christmas Party

Thanks to Mairéad Mc Veigh, Agnes Mc Cambridge, and Patrick and Collette Mc Veigh and everyone who helped and contributed to the Senior Citizen's Christmas Party. A great night was had by all. Míle buíochas.

Scór na nÓg 2009

Carey entered the Junior Scór, last month, in St. Galls. The standard was very high on the night, and although we did not qualify in any of the sections, for the Ulster Finals, the young people of the parish performed fantastically well in traditional music, novelty act, recitation and the quiz. A big thank-you to all the children who took part on behalf of the club. Maith sibh uilig! Thanks to Catherine Sands who prepared the traditional music group for the Scór, thanks also to PJ Hill and Gerry Mc Glynn who helped the quiz team, and thanks also to Micheál Sands and Siobhán Toner who helped out with the Novelty act.
