Scór Sinsir 2009

We are delighted that Carey Hall has been chosen for the venue of this years Senior Scór, on Friday 6th March at 8pm. The Club has entered 4 sections in this years Scór: solo singing, Quiz, traditional music and group ballad. There will be a number of clubs competing in each section, and this should prove to be a great night's entertainment. Everyone is welcome to attend. Come along to support your Club, and enjoy the night! Ádh Mór / Good Luck to everyone taking part!

Seisiúin Cheoil do Lucht Óige / Junior Traditional Music Sessions

There will be monthly traditional music sessions for children and young adults. The first session starts on Friday 13th February, from 8pm to 9pm, in Carey Hall. The aim of these sessions is to give the children a chance to share their music in a relaxed environment, and learn from older people who are already accomplished musicians Catherine Sands will co-ordinate the session and all family members are encouraged to come along and become involved in their children's music. Just bring along your instrument! (Any children under the age of 10 should be accompanied by an adult.)

Ballraíocht 2009 / 2009 Memberships

Memberships are now due. All people who have standing orders with The Friends of Carey Faughs have their annual Club membership covered each year. James Mc Carry will be calling over the next number of weeks to collect memberships from those not covered by the Friends of Carey Faughs. (If anyone would like to become a member of Friends of Carey Faughs they can contact Colm Mc Bride on 07749 112813.)

For players to be covered by GAA insurance they must be paid up Club members.
